COTTON MARKET.

Quotations furnished by Dick Brea. & Co., members of the New York and New Orleans Cotton exchanges. Hi2 H street northwest.

New York, May 28.—The cotton market was moderately active and fairly steady, with trading generally at a lower level than yesterday. Spot demand, particularly at Liverpool, is small, with sales and, particularly at Liverpool, is small, with sales of only 4.99 bales in that market. Cables state that spinners are likely to fall lack on their supplies and take less than their consumption. Sentiment remains bullish and the trade generally looks for a condition report below 79, with some predictions of a showing below 60. In our report issued to day we place crop conditions at 78, with acreage of 23,030,030, an increase of 4.7 per cent over figures of the financial Chronicle for last year, get of 23,030,030, an increase of 4.7 per cent over figures of the financial Chronicle for last year, weekly weather over the belt, except in the central part, where mins were reported ficary. Southern spot generally steady and mechanged. Port receipts, 10,100, last year, 16,725.
